Career Readiness Certificate (01/01/2015-05/31/2016)

Virginia's Career Readiness Certificate (CRC) assists employers by certifying that a recipient possesses core skills in applied math, reading for information, and locating information. The CRC certification is based on established Workeys® assessment tests. Virginia uses a three-tiered approach (bronze, silver, gold) to credentialing certificate holders that is based on the recipient's level of development skills.

Government and Taxes

Government

The city of Charlottesville has a City Manager and a five-member City Council. Albemarle County has a County Executive and a six-member Board of Supervisors. Fluvanna, Greene, and Nelson Counties all have a County Administrator and a five-member Board of Supervisors. Buckingham County has a County Administrator and seven-member Board of Supervisors.

All six communities have adopted comprehensive plans and have zoning and subdivision ordinances.

Charlottesville serves as the county seat of Albemarle County. Scottsville is the only incorporated town. Palmyra is county seat of Fluvanna County. Columbia and Scottsville are the only incorporated towns. Stanardsville is the county seat of Greene County. Lovingston is the county seat of Nelson County. Buckingham is the county seat of Buckingham County. Dillwyn is the only incorporated town within Buckingham County.

Taxes

Localities in Virginia collect a 1% sales tax. They do not tax other items taxed at the State level.

Counties and cities in Virginia are separate taxing entities. Therefore, a company pays taxes to either a county or to a city.

If a company is located in a town, it pays town and county taxes except for utility taxes which are paid only to the town and the license tax which is paid only to the town unless town law permits the additional collection of a county tax.

Manufacturers pay real estate, machinery and tools, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes.

Nonmanufacturers pay real estate, tangible personal property, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes. They also may pay either a merchants' capital or a license tax.

The UVA Health System in Charlottesville has been recognized for excellence by U.S. News & World Report, Best Doctors in America, and Good Housekeeping. Many physicians and nurses are known worldwide as leaders in their fields.

Community Facilities

Worldclass medical care is centrally located in Charlottesville. The University of Virginia Health System ranks among the most comprehensive medical facilities in Virginia. The University Hospital has 683 patient beds and contains many specialized services including a Level One trauma center, intensive care, dialysis, newborn and coronary care. Also part of the medical center is the Kluge Children's Rehabilitation Center and Research Institute. Several public and private medical clinics are located throughout the Region.

Over 850 physicians and 130 dentists practice in the area.

Twenty adult homes and five major full-service retirement communities provide choices between intermediate and skilled care in the area. In addition, a 60-bed Alzheimer/Dementia facility is located in Greene County.

More than 500 places of worship are located in the Charlottesville MSA.

The Jefferson-Madison Regional Library operates five branches in the area with more than 400,000 volumes. Several of the counties in the Charlottesville MSA maintain library systems of their own. The Alderman Library at the University of Virginia has holdings in excess of 2.5 million books and more than eight million manuscripts. In addition, The University of Virginia's Darden Business School Library and the library at Piedmont Virginia Community College are open to the public.

The Charlottesville MSA is widely recognized as an attractive place to live and work. The area's rich history has been preserved in numerous attractions including Monticello, Ash Lawn-Highland, Michie Tavern, and the University of Virginia.

Community Facilities

The Charlottesville MSA offers a variety of retail shopping options to area residents. Charlottesville Fashion Square is the area's regional mall with over 75 stores, including three major department stores. Charlottesville's revitalized downtown is the site of a pedestrian mall that offers a vast assortment of specialty shops, variety stores, restaurants, and entertainment including an indoor ice-skating rink and cinema. Numerous shopping centers, convenience marts, specialty shops, antique stores, and craft stores are distributed around the region. Additional retail opportunities are clustered in the nearby Richmond metropolitan area.

A growing wine industry exists in the Charlottesville MSA with numerous wineries in the area and hundreds of acres devoted to commercial viticulture. The Monticello Wine Trail connects 30 wineries in the heart of Virginia Wine Country.

Lifestyle

The location of the University of Virginia in Charlottesville presents unique opportunities for area residents to sample a rich assortment of cultural and entertainment activities. The University itself schedules numerous plays, concerts, lectures and Division I Collegiate sporting events that are open to the community. The Bayley Art Museum at the University features notable collections of art from around the world and covers a broad spectrum of historic periods. The McIntire Department of Music at the university annually sponsors over 70 concerts that the community is welcome to enjoy.

In addition, many civic and social organizations have developed a popular following and help foster the area's reputation for sophistication in the arts. These groups include the Charlottesville University and Community Symphony Orchestra, the Community Children's Theatre, the Virginia Players, and the Four County Players serving the surrounding area as well. Summer months also produce cultural highlights led by the Heritage Repertory Company, Central Virginia's only resident professional theatre company, and the Ash Lawn/Highland Opera Festival.

The Charlottesville MSA's location on the eastern edge of the panoramic Blue Ridge Mountains encourages residents to take advantage of outdoor recreational pursuits. The Shenandoah National Park provides the setting for camping, picnicking, and hiking. The Appalachian Trail and the famed Skyline Drive traverse the mountains and are easily accessed from anywhere in the area. The highest waterfall in the Eastern U.S., Crabtree Falls, is located in the MSA as is the 1,500-acre James River State Park. Many of the mountain streams and lakes are well stocked with brook and rainbow trout and attract local and tourist fishing. Numerous local recreational facilities are available throughout the region, including tennis and golf.

Many civic and social organizations have developed a popular following and help foster the area's reputation for sophistication in the arts.

Lifestyle

Wintergreen Resort is a significant recreational asset for the Charlottesville, MSA. This 10,800-acre resort is designed to provide outstanding leisure pursuits throughout the four seasons of the year. Ski slopes, open day and night, allow skiing for both beginners and experts. Wintergreen is one of only five resorts south of New York State to offer a thousand-foot vertical drop. Two golf courses, swimming, tennis, horseback riding, hiking, cycling, and canoeing provide opportunities for recreation for the entire family. Five restaurants, a gallery of specialty shops, and luxurious condominiums and villas help complete the total resort package.

Historic attractions such as Thomas Jefferson's home, Monticello, and Ash Lawn/Highland, estate of James Monroe, are popular destinations for tourists and residents alike. Michie Tavern, one of the oldest homesteads in Virginia, still serves authentic colonial fare and contains one of the largest collections of pre-revolutionary artifacts in the nation. Festivals and special events are held at the 5,000-acre Oak Ridge Estate, a 1902 mansion with formal gardens and its own train station. Nelson County is the birthplace of the once popular TV series, the Walton's, and a museum is located there to exhibit Walton's memorabilia.

Wine lovers will note that Albemarle County is home to ten wineries and hundreds of acres devoted to commercial vineyards. Most of the wineries host tours for the public. An annual Albemarle Harvest Wine Festival draws numerous visitors from afar to sample the local award-winning wines.

The area is also well known in equestrian circles as the home of some of the finest hunt clubs in the world. The rolling terrain provides an ideal and picturesque setting for horse shows, polo matches, fox hunting and steeplechase meets.

Wintergreen, located in Nelson County, is a four-season family resort spanning 11,000 acres.
